Item 1.01 | Entry Into A Material Definitive Agreement.

Transaction Agreement

On August 24, 2022, GSR II Meteora Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation (the "Company," "us" or "our"), entered into a Transaction Agreement (as it may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Transaction Agreement"), by and among the Company, GSR II Meteora Sponsor LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Sponsor", and together with the Company, "GSR Entities"), BT Assets, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("BT Assets"), and Lux Vending, LLC, a Georgia limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of BT Assets ("Lux Vending"). The transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreement as described below are hereinafter referred to as the "Business Combination" and the closing date of the Business Combination is hereinafter referred to as the "Closing." All of the terms used, but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Transaction Agreement.

In connection with the Business Combination, the Company will be renamed "Bitcoin Depot Inc." or another name to be determined by the BT Entities (defined below) in their reasonable discretion ("PubCo").

The Transaction Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby were approved by the board of directors of the Company and the leadership team of BT Assets.

The Business Combination

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Transaction Agreement, in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law, and prior to or at the Closing, the GSR Entities and the BT Entities will enter into the following transactions:

(i)	Lux Vending will merge with and into a newly-formed Delaware limited liability company known as "Bitcoin Depot Operating LLC" ("BT OpCo", and together with BT Assets, "BT Entities");
(ii)	BT Assets will sell, transfer, assign, convey and deliver to PubCo and PubCo will purchase and accept from BT Assets, the Purchased Common Units in exchange for certain cash consideration (the "Over the Top Consideration").
(iii)	PubCo will assign, transfer, contribute and deliver to BT OpCo certain cash consideration (the "Contribution Amount"), and BT OpCo will issue and deliver to PubCo (i) at the Closing, the Contribution Common Units, and (ii) at the Closing and immediately following the effectiveness of the BT OpCo A&R LLC Agreement, certain Matching Warrants and PubCo Earn-Out Units. The Over the Top Consideration and the Contribution Amount will be distributed in accordance with the Cash Distribution Waterfall as set forth in the Transaction Agreement.

Following the foregoing transactions, and assuming no redemptions, BT Assets and its affiliated entities, including Brandon Mintz, the founder, Chief Executive Officer and controlling stockholder of BT Assets, are expected to own a majority of the outstanding Common Units and the outstanding BT Earn-Out Units and a supermajority of the outstanding voting shares of PubCo, and PubCo will own the remainder of the outstanding Common Units and BT Earn-Out Units. The Business Combination is expected to close in the first quarter of 2023, following the receipt of the required approvals by the Company's stockholders and the fulfillment of other customary closing conditions, including a minimum cash condition.

Transaction Consideration

As of the date of this filing, the Company has approximately $310 million in its Trust Account, net of deferred underwriting fees of approximately $11.1 million, which will be used as cash consideration in connection with the Business Combination. In addition, the Transaction Agreement permits the Company to raise additional equity financing prior to the Closing, subject to certain terms and conditions.

Representations and Warranties; Covenants

The Transaction Agreement contains representations, warranties and covenants of each of the parties thereto that are customary for transactions of this type, including with respect to corporate organization and authorization, third party consents, capitalization, financial statements, material contracts, tax matters, compliance with laws, employee and benefits matters and intellectual property, among others. Effective immediately following the Closing, PubCo's board of directors shall be comprised of seven directors, two of whom shall be designated by the Sponsor and five of whom shall be designated by BT Assets prior to the Closing.

Conditions to Each Party's Obligations

The Closing is subject to certain customary conditions, including, but not limited to, (i) the requisite approvals of the stockholders of the Company, (ii) the expiration or termination of any applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (if applicable), (iii) the PubCo Class A Common Stock being approved for listing on Nasdaq and (iv) performance of each parties' covenants to be performed under the Transaction Agreement in all material respects.

Termination

The Transaction Agreement may be terminated under certain customary and limited circumstances prior to the Closing, including, (i) by BT Assets and the Company, (ii) by BT Assets or the Company if any Governmental Authority shall have enacted any Governmental Order which has become final and non-appealable and has the effect of making consummation of the Business Combination illegal or otherwise preventing or prohibiting consummation of the Business Combination, (iii) by BT Assets if the Company Stockholder Approval is not obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the required vote at the Company's Stockholders' Meeting, (iv) by BT Assets after there has been a Modification in Recommendation, (v) by the Company upon the failure to meet specified deadlines for the filing of the Proxy Statement, subject to certain conditions, (vi) prior to the Closing, by the Company if (A) there is any breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of the BT Entities set forth in the Transaction Agreement such that certain conditions to closing cannot be satisfied and such breach is not cured within the cure period window or (B) the Closing has not occurred on or before February 28, 2023, unless the Company is then in material breach of the Transaction Agreement, or (vii) prior to the Closing, by the Company if (A) there is any breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of the Company or Sponsor set forth in the Transaction Agreement such that certain conditions to closing cannot be satisfied and such breach is not cured within the cure period window or (B) the Closing has not occurred on or before the Agreement end date, unless any of the BT Entities is then in material breach of the Transaction Agreement.

If the Transaction Agreement is validly terminated, none of the parties to the Transaction Agreement will have any liability or any further obligation under the Transaction Agreement other than customary confidentiality obligations and other miscellaneous provisions, except in the case of fraud or willful and material breach of the Transaction Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Transaction Agreement and the Business Combination does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the terms and conditions of the Transaction Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The Transaction Agreement contains representations, warranties and covenants that the respective parties made to each other as of the date of the Transaction Agreement or other specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations, warranties and covenants were made for purposes of the contract among the respective parties and are subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating such agreement. The representations, warranties and covenants in the Transaction Agreement are also modified in important part by the underlying disclosure schedules which are not filed publicly with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and which are subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from that generally applicable to stockholders and were used for the purpose of allocating risk among the parties rather than establishing matters as facts. The Company does not believe that these schedules contain information that is material to an investment decision.

Sponsor Support Agreement

Concurrently with the execution of the Transaction Agreement, the Sponsor, the Company and BT Assets entered into a sponsor support agreement (the "Sponsor Support Agreement"), pursuant to which the Sponsor agrees, among other things, (i) to vote at any meeting of the Company's stockholders, and in any action by written consent of the Company's stockholders, all of its Company equity securities in favor of the adoption and approval of the Transaction Agreement, the transactions contemplated thereby, and the other approvals contemplated to be sought with respect thereto; (ii) be bound by certain other covenants and agreements related to the Business Combination and (iii) be bound by certain transfer restrictions with respect to such securities and on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Sponsor Support Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Sponsor Support Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the terms and conditions of the Sponsor Support Agreement filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

Registration Rights Agreement

At the Closing, Sponsor and BT Assets, among others (collectively, the "Holders"), and the Company will amend and restate the Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of February 24, 2022, by and between the Company and Sponsor (as amended and restated, the "Registration Rights Agreement"), pursuant to which, among other things, PubCo will agree to use commercially reasonable efforts to file a registration statement for a shelf registration on Form S-1 or Form S-3 within 45 days following Closing and the Holders will be granted certain customary registration rights with respect to the securities of PubCo.

The foregoing description of the Registration Rights Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the terms and conditions of the form of Registration Rights Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.2 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

Tax Receivable Agreement

At the Closing, the Company and the BT Entities will enter into a Tax Receivable Agreement (the "Tax Receivable Agreement"). Pursuant to the Tax Receivable Agreement, the Company will generally be required to pay BT Assets 85% of the amount of savings, if any, in U.S. federal, state, local, and foreign income taxes that the Company realizes, or is deemed to realize, as a result of certain tax attributes, including:

•	existing tax basis in certain assets of BT OpCo, including assets that will eventually be subject to depreciation or amortization, once placed in service, attributable to BT OpCo Common Units acquired by the Company at the Closing and thereafter in accordance with the terms of the A&R LLC Agreement (as defined below);
•	tax basis adjustments resulting from the Company's acquisition of BT OpCo Common Units from BT Assets at the Closing and thereafter pursuant to the terms of the A&R LLC Agreement (including any such adjustments resulting from certain payments made by the Company under the Tax Receivable

| | | | Agreement);

- disproportionate tax-related allocations made to the Company as a result of Section 704(c) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; and
- tax deductions in respect of interest payments deemed to be made by the Company in connection with the Tax Receivable Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Tax Receivable Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the terms and conditions of the form of Tax Receivable Agreement filed as Exhibit 10.3 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of BT OpCo

At the Closing, the Company, BT OpCo and BT Assets will enter into an Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of BT OpCo (the “A&R LLC Agreement”) setting forth the rights and obligations of the members of BT OpCo, and pursuant to which, among other things, BT OpCo will be controlled by PubCo, as managing member. In addition, the A&R LLC Agreement contains customary provisions for operating partnerships held by a public company, including providing for PubCo to maintain a one-to-one ratio between its outstanding PubCo Class A Common Stock and the number of Common Units held by PubCo.

The foregoing description of the A&R LLC Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the terms and conditions of the form of A&R LLC Agreement filed as Exhibit 10.4 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

Forward-Looking Statements

The information included herein and in any oral statements made in connection herewith include “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the “safe harbor” provisions of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements may be identified by the use of words such as “estimate,” “plan,” “project,” “forecast,” “intend,” “will,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “seek,” “target” or other similar expressions that predict or indicate future events or trends or that are not statements of historical matters, although not all forward-looking statements contain such identifying words. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding estimates and forecasts of financial and performance metrics and expectations and timing related to potential benefits, terms and timing of the Business Combination. These statements are based on various assumptions, whether or not identified herein, and on the current expectations of BT Assets’, Lux Vending’s and the Company’s management and are not predictions of actual performance. These forward-looking statements are provided for illustrative purposes only and are not intended to serve as, and must not be relied on by any investor as, a guarantee, an assurance, a prediction or a definitive statement of fact or probability. Actual events and circumstances are difficult or impossible to predict and will differ from assumptions. Many actual events and circumstances are beyond the control of BT Assets, Lux Vending and the Company. These forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, including changes in domestic and foreign business, market, financial, political and legal conditions; the inability of the parties to successfully or timely consummate the Business Combination, including the risk that any required regulatory approvals are not obtained, are delayed or are subject to unanticipated conditions that could adversely affect the combined company or the expected benefits of the Business Combination or that the approval of the shareholders of the Company is not obtained; failure to realize the anticipated benefits of the Business Combination; risks relating to the uncertainty of the projected financial information with respect to BT OpCo; future global, regional or local economic and market conditions; the development, effects and enforcement of laws and regulations; BT OpCo’s ability to manage future growth; BT OpCo’s ability to develop new products and solutions, bring them to market in a timely manner, and make enhancements to its platform; the effects of competition on BT OpCo’s future business; the amount of redemption requests made by the Company’s public stockholders; the ability of the Company or the combined company to issue equity or equity-linked securities in connection with the Business Combination or in the future; the outcome of any potential litigation, government and regulatory proceedings, investigations and inquiries; and those factors described or referenced in the Company’s final initial public offering prospectus dated February 24, 2022 and its most recent Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2022, in each case, under the heading “Risk Factors,” and other documents of the Company filed, or to be filed, from time to time with the SEC. If any of these risks materialize or our assumptions prove incorrect, actual results could differ materially from the results implied by these forward-looking statements. There may be additional risks that neither BT Assets, Lux Vending nor the Company presently know or that BT Assets, Lux Vending and the Company currently believe are immaterial that could also cause actual results to differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements. In addition, forward-looking statements reflect BT Assets’, Lux Vending’s and the Company’s expectations, plans or forecasts of future events and views as of the date hereof. BT Assets, Lux Vending and the Company anticipate that subsequent events and developments will cause BT Assets’, Lux Vending’s and the Company’s assessments to change. However, while BT Assets, Lux Vending and the Company may elect to update these forward-looking statements at some point in the future, BT Assets, Lux Vending and the Company specifically disclaim any obligation to do so except as otherwise required by applicable law. These forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing BT Assets, Lux Vending and the Company’s assessments as of any date subsequent to the date hereof. Accordingly, undue reliance should not be placed upon the forward-looking statements.

- Network of More Than 7,000 Kiosks for Converting Cash to Cryptocurrency, with Convenient, High-Performing Locations. The physical presence of kiosks in major participating retailers across North America drives new customer acquisition through an intuitive process. Bitcoin Depot's BTMs are located in zip codes containing over 40 percent of the US population today, while a pending license application in New York State represents a large market expansion opportunity.
- Growth Opportunities Through Strong Relationships, Consolidation of Highly-Fragmented Market and International Expansion. We believe robust retail relationships, such as with Circle K, consolidation of a highly-fragmented market, and international expansion pave the path for future growth. Large retailers have become increasingly interested in deploying BTMs because they help attract new customers and increase foot traffic from existing customers. Through a partnership with a payment solutions provider, Bitcoin Depot services are currently available at leading convenience store chains, a leading specialty retailer, and other leading retailer outlets. Bitcoin Depot can expand with current relationships as well as enter into new relationships and markets.
- Attractive Combination of Historical Growth and Profitability with Demonstrated Track Record of Success. Since 2016, Bitcoin Depot has demonstrated strong revenue growth and profitability while expanding its BTM footprint across North America. The growth in its footprint across North America has corresponded with the proliferation of cryptocurrency use and Bitcoin's position as a dependable network that offers convenient and fast digital asset transactions. In the last 12 months as of June 30, 2022 (unaudited), Bitcoin Depot has delivered $623 million of revenue, $6 million of net income, and $38 million of Adjusted EBITDA (non-GAAP).
- Transaction Volumes are not Historically Correlated to Cryptocurrency Prices. Bitcoin Depot's transaction volumes are not historically correlated to changes in cryptocurrency prices. Transaction volume across kiosk cohorts² since 2017 has accelerated despite volatility in cryptocurrency prices, which we believe indicates strong use cases for the digital asset payments economy.
- Best-In-Class Compliance Standards and Infrastructure. Bitcoin Depot's compliance team has over 50 years of combined experience in AML (Anti-Money Laundering), KYC (Know-Your-Customer), BSA (Bank Secrecy Act), and OFAC (Office of Foreign Assets Control) compliance. The team has established robust, multi-layer compliance procedures and takes a proactive approach to industry requirements, monitoring and reporting, and working closely with law enforcement as required.

2 "Cohorts" refers to the group of kiosks deployed in any given year.

- Entrepreneurial and Visionary Management Team: Bitcoin Depot is led by an accomplished and experienced senior management team with significant experience and a strong track record of driving growth and profitability.

"Today marks an important milestone for Bitcoin Depot," said Brandon Mintz, CEO and Founder of Bitcoin Depot. "We are always looking to expand our reach so as many people as possible can access cryptocurrency to control their own money and conduct easier and simpler financial transactions. Since inception, we've expanded our BTM footprint across North America, signed strategic relationships with major retailers, and enhanced our services to provide convenient access to cryptocurrency as we aim to become a digital asset economy on-ramp destination for users to efficiently turn cash into crypto. We're excited about numerous growth opportunities and believe a public listing enhances our ability to scale and evolve to achieve our goal of providing a convenient and secure way to purchase cryptocurrency."

Gus Garcia, Co-CEO and Director of GSRM, commented, "We are incredibly excited to partner with Bitcoin Depot to help drive its progress and support its mission to connect those who prefer to use cash to the broader, digital financial system. With its significant BTM footprint, key strategic relationships, and feature-rich mobile app, we believe Bitcoin Depot is well positioned to take advantage of the highly fragmented BTM market both domestically and overseas."

Lewis Silberman, Co-CEO and Director of GSRM, commented, "We're thrilled to announce our business combination with Bitcoin Depot. With an attractive growth profile, history of profitability, and exposure to cryptocurrency and digital asset adoption trends, we believe Bitcoin Depot will make for a compelling public-company story."

In addition, forward-looking statements reflect Bitcoin Depot's and GSRM's expectations, plans or forecasts of future events and views as of the date of this press release. Forward-Looking Statements: This presentation includes “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the federal securities laws, including, but not limited to, opinions and projections prepared by the Company’s and GSRM’s management. Forward-looking statements generally relate to future events or the Company’s or GSRM’s future financial or operating performance, including pro forma and estimated financial information, and other “forward-looking statements” (as such term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995). For example, projections of future EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA and other metrics are forward-looking statements. The recipient can identify forward-looking statements because they typically contain words such as “outlook,” “believes,” “expects,” “will,” “projected,” “continue,” “increase,” “may,” “should,” “could,” “seeks,” “predicts,” “intends,” “trends,” “plans,” “estimates,” or the negatives or variations of these words or other comparable words and/or similar expressions (but the absence of these words and/or similar expressions does not mean that a statement is not forward-looking). These forward-looking statements specifically include, but are not limited to, statements regarding estimates and forecasts of financial and performance metrics, projections of market opportunity and market share, potential benefits of the Proposed Transactions and the potential success of the Company’s strategy and expectations related to the terms and timing of the Proposed Transactions. Forward-looking statements, opinions and projections are neither historical facts nor assurances of future performance. Instead, they are based only on the Company’s and GSRM’s current beliefs, expectations and assumptions regarding the future of their respective businesses and of the combined company, future plans and strategies, projections, anticipated events and trends, the economy and other future conditions. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict and many of which are outside of the Company’s or GSRM’s control. These uncertainties and risks may be known or unknown. Factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations include, but are not limited to: (1) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of negotiations, including, without limitation, as a result of matters discovered by the parties as they complete their respective due diligence investigations of the other, and any subsequent definitive agreements with respect to the Proposed Transactions; (2) the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against the Company, GSRM, the combined company or others following the announcement of the Proposed Transactions and any definitive agreements with respect thereto; (3) the inability to complete the Proposed Transactions due to the failure to obtain GSRM shareholder approval of the Business Combination, to obtain financing to complete the Proposed Transactions or to satisfy other conditions to closing; (4) changes to the proposed structure of the Proposed Transactions that may be required or appropriate as a result of applicable laws or regulations or as a condition to obtaining regulatory approval of the Business Combination; (5) the ability to meet stock exchange listing standards following the consummation of the Proposed Transactions; (6) the risk that the Proposed Transactions disrupt current plans and operations of the Company as a result of the announcement and consummation of the Proposed Transactions; (7) the ability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the Proposed Transactions, which may be affected by, among other things, competition, the ability of the combined company to grow and manage growth profitably, maintain relationships with customers and suppliers and retain its management and key employees; (8) costs related to the Proposed Transactions; (9) changes in applicable laws or regulations; (10) the possibility that the Company or the combined company may be adversely affected by general economic conditions and other economic, business and/or competitive factors; (11) the Company’s estimates of expenses and profitability, business strategy and plans and the result of future financing efforts; (12) geopolitical events, natural disasters, acts of God and pandemics; and (13) other risks and uncertainties set forth in the sections entitled “Risk Factors” and “Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” in GSRM’s final prospectus relating to its initial public offering dated February 24, 2022. If any of these risks materialize or the Company’s or GSRM’s assumptions prove incorrect, actual results could differ materially from the results implied by the forward-looking statements contained herein. In addition, forward-looking statements reflect the Company’s and GSRM’s expectations and views as of the date of this presentation. The Company and GSRM anticipate that subsequent events and developments will cause their respective assessments to change. However, while the Company and GSRM may elect to update these forward-looking statements in the future, each of them specifically disclaims any obligation to do so. Accordingly, you should not place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date they are made.

Use of Projections: This presentation contains financial forecasts with respect to the Company’s projected financial results. Such projected financial information constitutes forward-looking information, is included for illustrative purposes only and should not be relied upon as necessarily being indicative of future results. The assumptions and estimates underlying such projected financial information are inherently uncertain and are subject to a wide variety of significant business, economic, competitive and other risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in the prospective financial information. Actual results may differ materially from the results contemplated by the projected financial information contained in this presentation, and the inclusion of such information in this presentation should not be regarded as a representation by any person that the results reflected in such projections will be achieved. The independent auditors of the Company and GSRM have not audited, reviewed, compiled or performed any procedures with respect to the projections for the purpose of their inclusion in this presentation, and accordingly, they have expressed no opinion and have not provided any other form of assurance with respect thereto for the purpose of this presentation.

Financial Information; Non-GAAP Measures: Certain of the financial information and data contained in this presentation have not been subject to a completed audit and do not conform to Regulation S-X promulgated under the Securities Act. Accordingly, such information and data may not be included in, may be adjusted in or may be presented differently in, any proxy statement, registration statement or prospectus that may be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). This presentation includes certain financial measures not presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) including, but not limited to, EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA and certain ratios and other metrics derived therefrom. The Company defines (i) EBITDA as earnings before interest expense, taxes, depreciation and amortization and (ii) Adjusted EBITDA as EBITDA further adjusted by the removal of certain non-recurring costs and assumed public company costs. These non-GAAP financial measures are not measures of financial performance in accordance with GAAP and may exclude items that are significant in understanding and assessing the Company’s financial results. Such measures may not be indicative of the Company’s historical operating results nor are such measures meant to be predictive of future results. Therefore, these measures should not be considered in isolation or as an alternative to net income, cash flows from operations or other measures of profitability, liquidity or performance under GAAP. You should be aware that the Company’s presentation of these measures may not be comparable to similarly-titled measures used by other companies. As such, undue reliance should not be placed on these non-GAAP financial measures.

These forward-looking statements specifically include, but are not limited to, statements regarding estimates and forecasts of financial and performance metrics, projections of market opportunity and market share, potential benefits of the Proposed Transactions and the potential success of the Company’s strategy and expectations related to the terms and timing of the Proposed Transactions. Forward-looking statements, opinions and projections are neither historical facts nor assurances of future performance. Instead, they are based only on the Company’s and GSRM’s current beliefs, expectations and assumptions regarding the future of their respective businesses and of the combined company, future plans and strategies, projections, anticipated events and trends, the economy and other future conditions. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict and many of which are outside of the Company’s or GSRM’s control. These uncertainties and risks may be known or unknown. Factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations include, but are not limited to: (1) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of negotiations, including, without limitation, as a result of matters discovered by the parties as they complete their respective due diligence investigations of the other, and any subsequent definitive agreements with respect to the Proposed Transactions; (2) the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against the Company, GSRM, the combined company or others following the announcement of the Proposed Transactions and any definitive agreements with respect thereto; (3) the inability to complete the Proposed Transactions due to the failure to obtain GSRM shareholder approval of the Business Combination, to obtain financing to complete the Proposed Transactions or to satisfy other conditions to closing; (4) changes to the proposed structure of the Proposed Transactions that may be required or appropriate as a result of applicable laws or regulations or as a condition to obtaining regulatory approval of the Business Combination; (5) the ability to meet stock exchange listing standards following the consummation of the Proposed Transactions; (6) the risk that the Proposed Transactions disrupt current plans and operations of the Company as a result of the announcement and consummation of the Proposed Transactions; (7) the ability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the Proposed Transactions, which may be affected by, among other things, competition, the ability of the combined company to grow and manage growth profitably, maintain relationships with customers and suppliers and retain its management and key employees; (8) costs related to the Proposed Transactions; (9) changes in applicable laws or regulations; (10) the possibility that the Company or the combined company may be adversely affected by general economic conditions and other economic, business and/or competitive factors; (11) the Company’s estimates of expenses and profitability, business strategy and plans and the result of future financing efforts; (12) geopolitical events, natural disasters, acts of God and pandemics; and (13) other risks and uncertainties set forth in the sections entitled “Risk Factors” and “Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” in GSRM’s final prospectus relating to its initial public offering dated February 24, 2022. If any of these risks materialize or the Company’s or GSRM’s assumptions prove incorrect, actual results could differ materially from the results implied by the forward-looking statements contained herein. In addition, forward-looking statements reflect the Company’s and GSRM’s expectations and views as of the date of this presentation. The Company and GSRM anticipate that subsequent events and developments will cause their respective assessments to change. However, while the Company and GSRM may elect to update these forward-looking statements in the future, each of them specifically disclaims any obligation to do so. Accordingly, you should not place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date they are made.

Use of Projections: This presentation contains financial forecasts with respect to the Company’s projected financial results. Such projected financial information constitutes forward-looking information, is included for illustrative purposes only and should not be relied upon as necessarily being indicative of future results. The assumptions and estimates underlying such projected financial information are inherently uncertain and are subject to a wide variety of significant business, economic, competitive and other risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in the prospective financial information. Actual results may differ materially from the results contemplated by the projected financial information contained in this presentation, and the inclusion of such information in this presentation should not be regarded as a representation by any person that the results reflected in such projections will be achieved. The independent auditors of the Company and GSRM have not audited, reviewed, compiled or performed any procedures with respect to the projections for the purpose of their inclusion in this presentation, and accordingly, they have expressed no opinion and have not provided any other form of assurance with respect thereto for the purpose of this presentation.

Financial Information; Non-GAAP Measures: Certain of the financial information and data contained in this presentation have not been subject to a completed audit and do not conform to Regulation S-X promulgated under the Securities Act. Accordingly, such information and data may not be included in, may be adjusted in or may be presented differently in, any proxy statement, registration statement or prospectus that may be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). This presentation includes certain financial measures not presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) including, but not limited to, EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA and certain ratios and other metrics derived therefrom. The Company defines (i) EBITDA as earnings before interest expense, taxes, depreciation and amortization and (ii) Adjusted EBITDA as EBITDA further adjusted by the removal of certain non-recurring costs and assumed public company costs. These non-GAAP financial measures are not measures of financial performance in accordance with GAAP and may exclude items that are significant in understanding and assessing the Company’s financial results. Such measures may not be indicative of the Company’s historical operating results nor are such measures meant to be predictive of future results. Therefore, these measures should not be considered in isolation or as an alternative to net income, cash flows from operations or other measures of profitability, liquidity or performance under GAAP. You should be aware that the Company’s presentation of these measures may not be comparable to similarly-titled measures used by other companies. As such, undue reliance should not be placed on these non-GAAP financial measures.

Disclaimer

The Company believes these non-GAAP measures of financial results provide useful information to management and investors regarding certain financial and business trends relating to the Company's financial condition and results of operations. The Company believes that the use of these non-GAAP financial measures provides an additional tool for investors to use in evaluating ongoing operating results and trends in and in comparing the Company's financial measures with other similar companies, many of which present similar non-GAAP financial measures to investors. Please refer to footnotes where presented on each page of this presentation and/or to the appendix found at the end of this presentation for more details regarding the calculations of such measures and/or for a reconciliation of these measures to what the Company believes are the most directly comparable measures evaluated in accordance with GAAP.

This presentation also includes certain projections of non-GAAP financial measures. Due to the high variability and difficulty in making accurate forecasts and projections of some of the information excluded from these projected measures, together with some of the excluded information not being ascertainable or accessible, the Company is unable to quantify certain amounts that would be required to be included in the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures without unreasonable effort. Consequently, no disclosure of estimated comparable GAAP measures is included and no reconciliation of the forward-looking non-GAAP financial measures is included.

Risks Related to Our Business and Industry

1. Our transaction volume may be partially dependent on the prices of digital assets, which can be volatile. If such prices decline, the volume of customer transactions could decrease and our business, operating results, and financial condition would be adversely affected.
2. Our long-term success depends on our ability to develop new and innovative products and services to address and keep pace with the rapidly evolving market for payments and financial services, and, if we are not able to implement successful enhancements and new features for our products and services, our business, operating results and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected.
3. Our risk management efforts may not be effective, which could expose us to losses and liability and otherwise harm our business.
4. We obtain and process a large amount of sensitive customer data. Any real or perceived improper use of, disclosure of, or access to such data could harm our reputation, as well as have an adverse effect on our business.
5. We operate in a highly competitive industry and we compete against unregulated or less regulated companies and companies with greater financial and other resources, and our business, operating results, and financial condition may be adversely affected if we are unable to respond to our competitors effectively.
6. Converting cash into digital assets (and vice versa) involves risks, which could result in loss of customer assets, customer disputes and other liabilities, which could adversely impact our business.
7. Disputes with our customers could adversely impact our brand and reputation and our business, operating results, and financial condition.
8. There are a number of risks associated with our international operations that could adversely affect our business.
9. Our products and services may be exploited to facilitate illegal activity such as fraud, money laundering, gambling, tax evasion, and scams. If any of our customers use our business to further such illegal activities, our business could be adversely affected.
10. If we fail to retain existing customers or add new customers, or if our customers decrease their level of engagement with our products and services, our business, operating results, and financial condition may be significantly harmed.
11. Our strategy and focus on delivering high-quality, compliant, easy-to-use, and secure digital asset-related services may not maximize short-term or medium-term financial results.
12. From time to time, we may encounter technical issues in connection with the integration of supported digital assets and changes and upgrades to their underlying networks, which could adversely affect our business.
13. Any significant disruption in our kiosks or software, in our information technology systems, or in any of the blockchain networks related to our business, could result in a loss of customers or funds and adversely impact our brand and reputation and our business, operating results, and financial condition.
14. Banks and financial institutions may not provide banking services, or may cut off services, to businesses that engage in bitcoin- and/or other digital asset-related activities, or that accept bitcoin as payment, including financial institutions of investors in our securities, and we may be exposed to counterparty risk as a result.
15. Due to unfamiliarity and some negative publicity associated with digital asset-related businesses, existing and potential customers may lose confidence in digital asset-related products and services which could negatively affect our business.
16. We have entered into, and may enter into in the future, acquisitions, strategic investments, partnerships or relationships, entries into new businesses, joint ventures, divestitures, and other transactions which could fail to achieve strategic objectives, disrupt our ongoing operations or result in operating difficulties, divert the attention of management, liabilities and expenses, harm our business, and negatively impact our results of operations.
17. We may not be able to secure financing on favorable terms, or at all, to meet our future capital needs, and our existing debt financing agreements contain, and any future debt financing agreements may contain, covenants that impact the operation of our business and pursuit of business opportunities.
18. Expanding our business globally subjects us to new challenges and risks.

Risks Related to Our Business and Industry (Cont'd)

19. Our business could be harmed if we are unable to accurately forecast demand for digital assets and to adequately manage our digital asset inventory.
20. Cryptocurrency inventory, including the inventory we maintain for our own account or inventory that may be maintained for us, and any investments in digital assets, are subject to volatile market prices, impairment, and other risks of loss.
21. Our products and services may not function as intended due to undetected errors in our software, hardware, and systems, product defects, developmental delays, or due to security breaches or incidents or human error in administering these systems, which could damage customer or third-party relations, decrease our potential profitability and expose us to liability, and materially and adversely affect our business.
22. Cybersecurity threats continue to increase in frequency and sophistication; a successful cybersecurity attack could interrupt or disrupt our information technology systems or cause the loss of confidential or protected data which could disrupt our business, force us to incur excessive costs or cause reputational harm.
23. Litigation or investigations involving us, our agents or other contractual counterparties could result in material settlements, fines or penalties and may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.
24. Major bank failure or sustained financial market illiquidity, or illiquidity at our clearing, cash management and custodial financial institutions, could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.
25. Our recent rapid growth, including growth in our transaction volume, may not be indicative of our future growth. Our rapid growth also makes it difficult to evaluate our future prospects and may increase the risk that we will not be successful.
26. The further development and acceptance of digital asset networks and other digital assets, which represent a new and rapidly changing industry, are subject to a variety of factors that are difficult to predict and evaluate. The slowing or stopping of the development or acceptance of digital asset systems may adversely affect an investment in us.
27. Fluctuations in currency exchange rates could harm our operating results and financial condition.
28. If we are unable to adequately protect our brand and the intellectual property rights related to our existing and any new or enhanced products and services, or if we infringe on the rights of others, our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.
29. We are subject to economic and geopolitical risk, business cycles, and the overall level of consumer, business and government spending, which could negatively affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.
30. We depend on major mobile operating systems and third-party platforms. If Google Play, the Apple App Store, or other platforms prevent customers from downloading our mobile app, our ability to grow may be adversely affected.
31. If miners or validators of any supported digital asset demand high transaction fees, our operating results may be adversely affected.
32. We rely on search engines, social networking sites and other web-based platforms to attract a meaningful portion of our customers, and if those search engines, social networking sites and other web-based platforms change their listings or policies regarding advertising, or increase their pricing or suffer problems, it may limit our ability to attract new customers.

Risks Related to Government Regulation and Privacy Matters

33. Any failure to obtain or maintain necessary money transmission licenses could adversely affect our operations.
34. We are subject to an extensive and highly-evolving regulatory landscape and any adverse changes to, or our failure to comply with, any laws and regulations could adversely affect our brand, reputation, business, operating results, and financial condition.
35. It may be illegal now, or in the future, to acquire, own, hold, sell or use bitcoin, or other cryptocurrencies, participate in blockchains or utilize similar digital assets in one or more countries, the ruling of which would adversely affect us.
36. The theft, loss, or destruction of private keys required to access any digital assets held in custody for our own account or for our customers may be irreversible. If we are unable to access our private keys or if we experience a hack or other data loss relating to our ability to access any digital assets, it could cause regulatory scrutiny, reputational harm, and other losses.
37. The digital asset economy is novel and has limited access to policymakers or lobbying organizations, which may harm our ability to effectively react to proposed legislation and regulation of digital assets or digital asset businesses adverse to our company.
38. Our obligations to comply with the laws, rules, regulations, and policies of a variety of international jurisdictions may increase and we may be subject to inquiries, investigations, and enforcement actions by U.S. and non-U.S. regulators and governmental authorities, including those related to sanctions, export control, and anti-money laundering.
39. Complex and evolving U.S. and international laws and regulation regarding privacy and data protection could result in claims, changes to our business practices, penalties, increased cost of operations or otherwise harm our business.
40. We are subject to compliance with U.S. anti-money laundering laws, the Bank Secrecy Act, the Dodd-Frank Act, the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and numerous laws and regulations. Failure to comply with these laws could result in material settlements, fines, penalties and increased operating costs, all of which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.
41. Future developments in tax laws or regulations regarding the treatment and reporting of digital assets for U.S. and foreign tax purposes could adversely impact our tax expense and liabilities, reporting obligations, liquidity and business.
42. Digital assets held by us are not subject to Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or Securities Investor Protection Corporation protections.
43. If we were deemed to be an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, applicable restrictions could make it impractical for us to continue our business as contemplated and could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Risks Related to Third Parties

44. We currently rely on third-party service providers and their systems for certain aspects of our operations, and any interruptions in services provided by these third parties may impair our ability to support our customers.
45. Many of our kiosks and key components to these kiosks are procured from a single or limited number of suppliers. Thus, we are at risk of shortage, price increases, tariffs, changes, delay, or discontinuation of these kiosks or components, which could disrupt and materially and adversely affect our business.
46. A substantial portion of our kiosks are placed with a small number of merchants as of the date of this presentation. The expiration, termination or renegotiation of any of these contracts with our top merchants, or if one or more of our top merchants were to cease doing business with us, or substantially reduce its dealings with us, could cause our revenues to decline significantly and our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely impacted.

Risk Related to Management and Employees

- 47. Our founder and chief executive officer has control over key decision making as a result of his control of a majority of the voting power of our outstanding capital stock.
- 48. Our management team has limited experience managing a public company.
- 49. The loss of one or more of our key personnel, or our failure to attract and retain other highly qualified personnel in the future, could adversely impact our business, operating results, and financial condition.
- 50. Our officers, directors, employees, and large stockholders may encounter potential conflicts of interests with respect to their positions or interests in digital assets, entities, and other initiatives, which could adversely affect our business and reputation.

General Risk Factors

- 51. Adverse economic conditions may adversely affect our business.
- 52. Investors' expectations of our performance relating to environmental, social and governance factors may impose additional costs and expose us to new risks.
- 53. We may be adversely affected by natural disasters, pandemics such as COVID-19, and other catastrophic events, and by man-made problems such as geopolitical conflicts and terrorism, that could disrupt our business operations, and our business continuity and disaster recovery plans may not adequately protect us from a serious disaster.
- 54. The requirements of being a public company, including maintaining adequate internal control over our financial reporting in accordance with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, may strain our resources, divert management's attention, and affect our ability to attract and retain executive management and qualified board members.
